

More From Our Nationwide Community

We're continuing to share responses from our members and social media followers to the question,

"How does HLAA's hearing loss community make a difference in my life?"

"HLAA changed my life by showing me that I am not alone with my daughter's hearing loss journey. I found other families who share the same challenges and learned to be an advocate for Giana."

—Gina Thomas, Nutley, NJ

"I've been part of the HLAA community for more than 20 years. I love the passion, knowledge and resources they provide, not only for my own hearing loss needs but for others across the country. Joining HLAA has been a rewarding experience!"

—Kim Calabretta, Morrisville, NC

"Meeting other people with hearing loss through HLAA has been a life-changer. I feel supported, respected and understood in a way that is unique to us. This motivates me to be more involved. I want others to feel the same way."
