Join Us at the HLAA 2024 Convention in Phoenix

Make your plans soon to attend the HLAA 2024 Convention, June 26-29 at the Sheraton Grand at Wild Horse Pass in Phoenix!

This annual event is the largest of its kind, designed to support hundreds of people with hearing loss from all walks of life around the United States. Attendees have the opportunity to learn and grow, discover the latest technology and engage with each other, as well as with hearing loss industry experts.

Convention Highlights
• Hear an engaging high-profile keynote speaker during the General Session.
• Delve into current scientific advances at our fascinating Research Symposium: The Emotional Side of Hearing Loss.
• Celebrate and connect at the Welcome Back event and other social functions.
• Learn from our exciting educational workshops on a wide range of topics.
• See product demonstrations of the latest technology for people with hearing loss.
• Walk through the Exhibit Hall featuring cutting-edge tech and hearing health industry professionals. Free Exhibit Hall-only passes available.
• Enhance an HLAA Chapter or State Organization at the HLAA Leadership Training.

Our Venue
For the first time, HLAA is holding its annual convention at a luxurious resort property, rather than at a hotel in an urban setting. Owned and operated by the Gila River Indian Community, the Sheraton Grand at Wild Horse Pass is located on a native American reservation. Indigenous inspired amenities include treatments at the Aji Spa, and Native American cuisine at KAI Restaurant. Two championship golf courses designed by architect Gary Panks feature original challenges with scenic desert vistas.

Workshop Proposals
Do you want to present at the HLAA 2024 Convention? Workshop proposals are now being accepted through Friday, December 15, 2023.

HLAA 2024 Awards
